The organising committee is made up of Int 505 sailors (admittedly some now retired) an experienced race management team, and a social group who plan to have an event to be remembered, and who would like to introduce you all to the beauty and relaxed atmosphere of our club, our beach and our city.

Please come for the racing, the fun, the sight seeing, and the opportunity to mix with a great group of people from the world over.

Int 505 is the best two-person racing dinghy in the world and its supporters are renowned for their fun loving spirit.

Located 16km south west of Adelaide and 10km from the airport, Brighton & Seacliff Yacht Club is close to the Adelaide-Noarlunga railway line and has easy access to the City and shopping centres. This premier facility is located on the beachfront 2km south of Brighton and is adjacent to coastal walks, cliff face reserve caravan park and local amenities. Racing is conducted almost directly in front of the sailing club which provides unsurpassed viewing of the racing from a large sheltered balcony.

Adelaide is situated on the shores of Gulf St Vincent which is renowned for its long sandy beaches, safe waters and ideal sailing conditions.

Brighton & Seacliff Yacht Club is close to the seaside resorts of Glenelg and Henley Square.

There are a number of accommodation options nearby to suit all budgets, including a caravan park with cabin-style units adjacent to the club.

You will not be at a loss for places to eat in Adelaide, we have a proud reputation of fine restaurants, hotels, and wineries. We have more restaurants per head of capita than any other city in Australia.

Brighton & Seacliff Yacht Club (B&SYC) is a purpose built dingy club that caters for over 100 boats on a weekly basis. B&SYC was the fourth club in Australia to be home to a fleet of 505's.

Since that time it has hosted two 505 World Championships (1966 & 1983) and several 505 National Championships.

The club has also played host to 420 World Championships (1973 & 1982) and Flying Dutchman World Championships in 1995.

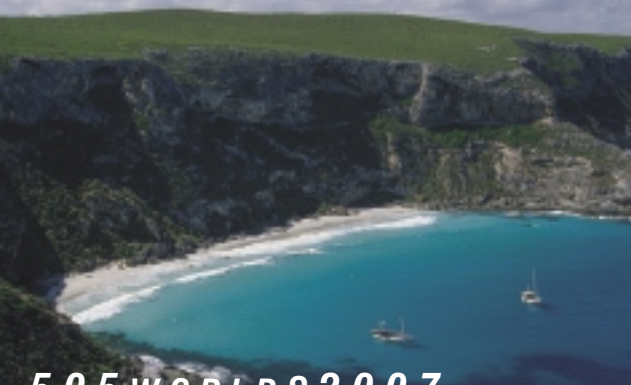

Every year the B&SYC is host to at least one Australian Championship

Regatta management at the B&SYC is a 'well-oiled machine'.

505 WORLDS 2007

what to see and

We would quietly suggest that Adelaide is Australia's best kept secret!

Adelaide has heaps to offer.

Spectacular beaches (swimming and surf), relaxing green and shady parklands, cultural and art centres, sporting arena's as well as easy to get to Adelaide Hills quietly hiding a range of pubs, restaurants, wineries, craft shops, native animal reserves, and lots more!

The city itself contained in a green belt of parklands on the edge of the River Torrens is worth exploring either by foot or on one of the tourist buses.

If its wine you're interested in, a tour down south to the McLaren Vale region to visit no less than 45 wineries all within a short distance of each other.

The Adelaide Hills, the attractive backdrop to the city contains numerous attractions including great views from Mt Lofty, Cleland Nature Park close by, Hahndorf Village for Craft and fine foods as well as many other nearby towns and villages each with their own special features. The views are spectacular, the distances to travel are small and the people are warm and friendly.

Further south (80 km) is the tourist attraction at Victor Harbor, where besides hotels, craft shops, eating places of all types, is a whale watch centre/museum, Granite Island to view the Penguins, and close by surf beaches.

Come to sail, come to holiday, most importantly come and enjoy yourselves and experience the delights of our great state. SA Great You'd better believe it!

Australian law requires that goods being shipped to Australia must complete the correct paperwork to ensure hassle free entry and exit.

It is strongly recommended that an ATA-Carnet be obtained before shipping goods to Australia.

An ATA-Carnet can be obtained from your country's 'Department of Trade and Commerce' after the payment of a security. Allow plenty of time to do this prior to shipping.

ATA-Carnets are then presented to your Customs Department at the time of export and your shipping company/agent will present these documents to Australian Customs on arrival of the container.

*At any stage customs can request inspection of the goods to ensure what is in the container matches the description on the ATA Carnet. Commercial Invoices and Carnet must agree.

Dear Mr van Munster

On behalf of the State of South Australia, it is with pleasure that I support the Australian 505 Class Yacht Racing Association to attract the "52nd World Championships" to South Australia in 2007.

Adelaide has attracted many national and international sporting events and is well recognised as a city offering world class and versatile facilities, including dedicated convention centres and a comprehensive selection of accommodation.

Adelaide not only provides the world class facilities, our city also offers unforgettable experiences for participants to enjoy. You can be assured your participants will leave Adelaide with fond memories and to ensure this, the Adelaide Convention & Tourism Authority will assist with all of your event requirements.

The city, set in a square mile and surrounding suburbs is easily traversed in 20 minutes. Central Adelaide features award winning restaurants, esteemed arts and cultural attractions, markets, elegant buildings and gardens, located in long, leafy boulevards - surrounded by lush parklands. Participants can also enjoy scenic visits to wine growing districts, historic villages, wildlife sanctuaries and seaside resorts, all within close proximity to the city.

I look forward to welcoming you to Adelaide and I am sure your participants will be warmly welcomed by South Australians.

Yours sincerely
